"Kid" McCoy, who has always been egarded as one of the cleverest big men that ever milled on a pair of boxing gloves, will never again exchange jab and uppercuts with any of the other big fellows. He has just made the anquancement that he is through with the ing. McCoy has been thinking seriously quitting the profession for some time, but he did not make up his mind manager, George Grant, a telegram from Chicago stating his decision. McCoy has decided to follow up racing for a living, and if successful he intends to buy a few good horses and have them run in his name at the tracks in this to it until last night, when he sent his manager, George Grant, a telegram from buy a few good horses and have them run in his name at the tracks in this vicinity. His journey to Chicago was for the purpose of getting a few tips on racing from his friend, Sam Hil-dreth, the well-known horseman. Mc-Coy intends to spend the summer in Chicago.

Root the Cause of Decision. McCoy's reason for quitting the ring is on account of the poor showing he made in his fight with Jack Root, of Chicago, in their ten-round bout at De-troit two months ago. He says he trained hard for the battle, but when the battle started he felt that he was not the same strong fighter he was a few years ago. Yanger to Meet English.

Benny Yanger, the undefeated Chicago feather-weight, has been matched to fight Clarence English, the feather-weight boxer of Kansas City, in a tenround bout before the Missouri A. C. of Kansas City to-morrow night. After this bout Yanger will start for San Francisco where he is to fight Eddie Hanlon, the clever Californit twenty-round bout before the Hayes Valley A. C. on June 30. Yanger will be accompanied to this decision, which was cabled by A. Rawlinson to W. Hazard, Secretary of the American Foather reference in that message to "all soldiers refused leave of absence" meant that two army officers who had been selected to play on the English team are on regimental duty and cannot get the War office to consent to their necessarily prolonged absence from duty. Forbes and Feltz Fight To-Night.

Little Tommy Feltz, the South Brookyn feather-weight, who is matched to fight Clarence Forbes, the Western bantam-weight, in a twenty-round bout before the West End A. C., of St. Louis, before the West End A. C., of St. Louis, to-night, has done more fighting since the beginning of the present year than any other puglist in the profession. Up to date he has engaged in seventeen fights. He has fought as often as four times a week and was ready to fight the other two nights if he could secure the engagements. If successful in beating Forbes, Feltz will try to get on a match with Abe Attel.

Britt Sidesteps Gans.

Partner Lasted Four Rounds with Quaker City Fighter.

The light-weight champion, polished off Willie Fitzgerald in ten rounds in San Francisco on Friday night will doubties cost Gans a match with Jimmy Britt, the light-weight champion of Callfornia. Britt had intended to fight Gans for the title of light-weight champion, but when he saw the colored fighter hit Fitzgerald when and where he pleased all through the fight and finally put him to sleep he evidently changed his mind. Now Britt demands that the weight be 133 pounds, weigh in at the ring side, Guns cannot reach that mark. the light-weight champion, polished off

Little Money in England.

The fighters in England at present must be having a hard time of it. The must be having a hard time of it. The purses the clubs over there offer them these days amount to only $250 or $300 for fifteen or twenty-round encounters. Jack ("Twin") Sullivan, the New Emgland welter-weight champion, who is in England at present, has sent a letter to a friend in this country advising all American fighters to stay away from England. George Dixon, according to Sullivan, only received $50 for losing in his last fight.
